ENORMOUS CROWD EXTENDS ENTHUSIASTIC WELCOME TO RACING AT LEXINGTON.

Best Opening Day Card Ever Programmed in Blue Grass Region Produces High Grade Sport-Camden and McDowell Stables Score Doubles.

Lexington, Ky., April 24.—Doubles were the order of a most auspicious inauguration of the 1914 racing season in this state at the Kentucky Association course this afternoon. Johnson N. Camden, member of the Kentucky State Racing Commission, master of Hartland Stud and owner of the big stable of thoroughbreds trained by J. O. Keene, saw his colors carried to victory by the three-year-old filly Casuarina and the two-year-old colt Luke, favorites respectively for the Ashland Oaks, which is to be run next Monday, and the Breeders' Futurity, which is to be decided on the closing day of this meeting. Thursday, May 7.

Thomas C. McDowell, master of Ashland Stud and owner of a stable of twenty-five horses, the best he has had in years, won the first two-year-old race of the season here with Waterblossom, a sister to Waterbass and doubled by taking the Phoenix Hotel Handicap, the feature of the day, with the game Star Jasmine.

The weather was warm, though at times cloudy and threatening showers, and the track was at its best. The attendance was the largest ever noted here on an opening day and the card was without question the best that has ever been put on for a first day at Lexington within the memory of the oldest racegoers in this vicinity. When the horses went to the post for the first race at 2:15 there was not a vacant place in the grandstand, and as the day progressed the crowd grew larger until by the fourth race the promenade, the betting enclosure and the paddock were all overflowing with people.

Iron Mask, from the costly racing establishment of Jefferson Livingston, was the favorite for the inaugural dash and he finished the five and one-half furlongs a nose in front of Yankee Notions, which he wore down after a long stretch drive, in 1:06%, a new track record, and that with 123 pounds, under the pilotage of jockey Hanover. The odds were a fraction better than 1 to 2 and there was much comment over the fact, inasmuch as it was expected by any speculators that he would not be better than the would be one o ment over the fact, inasmuch as it was expected by wany speculators that he would not be better than 1 to 3.

Trainer Mose Goldmatt had every expectation that he would be one of those to score a double and told his friends to back Ed Howard to win the fifth race, but the son of Cesarion was the victim of had racing luck. As the barrier went up, Luke, the one-eyed colf, put his left eye—the rail eye is out—on the end of the line, broke toward the inside and caused a general jamming of the youngsters between him and the fence. In the mixup jockey Turner, the rider of Ed Howard, had his left boot ripped open and about an luch of the cutied torn from his foot, and R. J. Austin's Commonada was considerably cut about the legs and side. Turner says Howard was down to his knees three times in the race. Lindenthal bumped him into the fence for the second time an eighth of a mile from the finish. Luke, when he straightened out, had speed to spare and won easily in :48.

Waterblossom's performance was decidely impressive, notwithstanding that she got somewhat the best of a bad start, which was due to the greenness of the majority of the youngsters in the second race. Her time, 47%, is only a fraction of a second slower than the track record of 47%, which was established by King's Daughter as a two-year-old, and she was also the property of T. C. McDowell.

The finish in the Phoenix Hotel Handicap was a brilliantly close one and was a tribute to the ability of racing secretary Wm. H. Shelley as a bandica-oper, and, be it known, he doesn't rely upon clockers' reports for his conclusions. He is a past performance handicapper.

Casuarina's race stamps her as a filly of quality and she must be given serious consideration in whatever calculations are made upon the stakes to which she is eligible. Bronzewing ran an excellent race and will be daugerous in good company the next time out. The closing race went to W. G. Yanke's Flying Feet, reported to have been heavily backed away from the track.

H. K. Knapp headed a big party from New York and they took a keen interest in the racing. Mr. Knapp was elated over the good showing that Yankee Notions made in the opener. Mr. Knapp stated that New York racing conditions for this season appeared roseate. His extensive string and those owned by the Messrs. Hitchcock and Schuyler L. Parsons will be shipped east at the close of the Lexington racing.

John Hachmelster, general manager of the Douglas Park and Latonia tracks and Harvey Meyers, president of the Latonia Jockey Club, were among those who came from Cincinnati for the opening. Mr. Hachmelster returned tonight to Latonia and will leave for Louisville next Sunday to begin preliminary work attending the opening of Douglas Park May 23. Jockeys Sumter and Byrne are here with the Wm. H. Karrick stable and will accept mounts during the racing here.

All the members of the Kentucky Racing Commission, except Gorge J. Long, were on hand, Mr. Camden was well pleased with the victory of his crack, Luke.

crack, Luke.

There was considerable surprise manifested over the refusal of the racing commission to grant riding licenses to Jockeys Borel, Goose, Gross, Small and Wrispen today. According to report, several other riders barely escaped similar denial.

HANDICAP FURNISHED THRILLING RACE,

Honey Bee, at 20 to 1, Beats Isidora a Nose in Havre de Grace Feature.

Honey Bee, at 20 to 1, Beats Isidora a Nose in Havre de Grace, Md., April 24.—The three-quarters of a mile handicap which was programmed here this aftermoon furnished the best contest run during the meeting. There were five starters that left the barrier abreast and four of them raced in a compact bunch to the stretch turn. The finish found thoney Bee, a long shot, and Isidora, the favorite, fighting it out, and as they passed the judges the pair were noses apart, with the winner in doubt until the official placing was displayed. Ward was unable to pull Honey Bee up after the race and she ran away an additional mile and a half. This was the filly's maiden effort of the season and the mishap will probably set her back.

Conditions were ideal for outdoor sport and an immense crowd turned out. Two additional layers cut in, which brought the total number up to thirty two. The track was at its best and fairly fast time was recorded. Easy came out of her race yesterday it was discovered that she had bowed a tendon slightly. Owner Bedwell said today that he was afraid he would have to put her away for a month or more as a result of the injury.

Louis Blume, who has been training the Hedrick borses with such success, met with a painful accident last night. He fell down a flight of stairs and tore the ligaments in one of his legs.

George W. Langdon was a visitor today. He has his horses, Addie M. and Charlestonian, at Sheepshead Bay and intends resting them until the opening of the New York season at Belmont Park May 26.

Joseph McLennan arrived today in the interest of the stakes to be run by the Ontario Jockey Club and the Montreal Jockey Club. He is meeting with excellent success in his quest for entries, He has been commissioned to contract with several good riders to accept mounts in the Breeders' Futurity at Lexington, as well as in some other of the big stakes in Kentucky.

After the first race H. G. Bedwell claimed Briar Path for $700 from J. L. Holland and Sam Louis claimed Crisco from Amos Turney for $600.

MAIDEN ERLEGH'S CITY AND SUBURBAN.

On the second day of the Epsom spring meet at Epsom, England, last Wednesday, the City and Suburban Handicap of $10,000, for three-year-olds and over at a mile and a quarter was won by Sol Joel's five-year-old brown horse Maiden Erlegh, by Polymelus—Plum Tart, carrying the top weight of 121 pounds, A. LOW ENTRANCE FEES AT TORONTO.

Owners who intend to campaign their horses in Canada this year are reminded that the liberal list of stakes offered by the Ontario Jockey Club of Toronto, close for entries at midnight of Monday. In this connection it is pointed out that the cost of nominating is unusually small, it costing but $5 to enter and $20 to start for the Toronto Cup, which has $5,000 added. Similarly it only requires $5 to enter the Consaught Cup with $3,000 added, and the Woodstock Plate, for three-year-olds, with $3,000 added, and $10 more to start. This is an important item to owners and nowhere else can such high values be competed for at such a comparatively trifling outlay.

STAKE RACES OF FORT ERIE MEETINGS.

To close for entries at midnight of Monday, May 4, the Niagara Racing Association offers its usual list of stake races to be run at its two Fort Erie meetings. For its first meeting, set for July 4 to July 11, inclusive, four stake races are provided, with the Canadian Derby of $3,500, for three-year-olds at a mile and a quarter, as the principal feature. The other three are the Fourth of July Handicap for three-year-olds and over at a mile and seventy yards; Fort Erie Selling Stakes, for three-year-olds and over at three-quarters of a mile, and the Niagara Stakes for two-year-olds at five-eighths of a mile. The second meeting covers the dates of

RACING GOSSIP FROM LOUISVILLE.

Louisville, Ky., April 24.—There was a lull in Derby work-outs today. Many of the trainers went to Lexington for the opening of the season's racing. Hodge's mile in 1:40% on Wednesday and Ralph's performance at the same distance in 1:41 on Thursday greatly increased respect for these two crack Kentucky Derby candidates and unless old Rosebud does something sensational in his races at Lexington he will not be much of a favorite in the big race on May 9 over Kay Spence's gelding or George J. Long's colt, in the opinion of local horsemen. Doubtless during the coming week these two great three-year-olds will be set down for fast mile and a quarter trials. Both Hodge and Ralph are now taking their final Derby preparation in absolutely perfect form. Both appear to be in the best of health and are just ripe for the severest training can make them on the afternoon of May 9, the date set for the fortieth renewal of the Derby.

J. E. Madden's filly, Watermeion, is also going along well in her berby training. After a mile in 1:43 earlier in the week, on Frats%, which will put her in condition for a mile and a quarter trial next week. The report that she would be shipped to Lexington to run in the Ashland Oaks next Monday was without authority on the part of Mr. Madden. He states that she will positively start at Churchill Downs in the Kentucky Derby and that that event will mark her first appearance under colors this season. After the Derby race she will be rested until the closing day of the New Louisville Jockey Club spring meeting on Friday, May 22, when she will start in the Kentucky Derby and that that event will mark her first appearance under colors this season. After the Derby race she will be rested until the closing day of the New Louisville Jockey Club spring meeting on Friday, May 22, when she will start in the Kentucky Oaks, which her owner confidently believes she will win. It is hoped that before the Derby is run C. H. Shilling will have been reinstated by the Jockey Club apring meeting on Friday. May 22, w oceanic ennal committee, that committee has decided tentatively to extend the period granted for hearings.

With reluctance President Wilson has ordered the army to Mexico. Four transports are on the way from Galveston to Vera Cruz with the Fifth Brigade of infantry, 4,500 strong, under command of General Funston, and a small detachment of artillery. More of the latter are to follow as soon as possible. It was not until high officials of the army and navy had labored hard to impress upon the president the necessity for reinforcing the naval forces at Vera Cruz that the order went forth. Admiral Badger sent word from Vera Cruz that it was imperative that the land forces be rushed there with all the dispatch possible. Three regiments of infantry from San Francisco have been ordered to the Texas border, together with the Sixth Field Artillery from Fort Riley, Kansas. The military and naval authorities pointed out that the naval forces are not designed for land campaigning and it looks as if there may be an engagement in the vicinity of Vera Cruz in the near future. Huerta is reported to be massing troops in that locality. There have been some anti-American disturbances in the City of Mexico and other Mexican cities, but none of a serious nature. Secretary Daniels has ordered a flying squadron of sixteen warships to leave the Atlantic coast Sunday for the east coast of Mexico. Brazil has accepted an invitation to look after American interest in Mexico during the interruption of diplomatic relations. Chief Flynn of the United States secret service has escorted the Mexican charge. Senor Argara, to Toronto, Villa, at Juarez, intimates that he is not in sympathy with the ideas of Carranza. The Constitutionalists have given the Federals twenty-four hours in which to surrender Tampico. Failure to comply with the denand will result in an attack, they say. By authority of Admiral Badger, the German Steamer Ypiranga, is discharging her cargo of war munitions at the Vera Cruz custom house, where it will be held.

President Wilson stated yesterday that no further aggressive steps would be taken in Mexico until there are some developments. The American naval forces that have been landed at Vera Cruz total 6,500 men. Mexican federals, in abandoning Neuvo Laredo, opposite Laredo, Tex., yesterday opened fire on that Mexican town and are reported to have killed three residents. Governor Colquitt of Texas has rushed a regiment of milita there and another to Brownsville. He threatens to call out the whole of the Texas national guard unless the Washington authorities heed his repeated requests for regular troops to afford better protection to the border towns. Before evacuating Neuvo Laredo, the Huerta forces blew up the American consulate and set fire to the principal buildings.
